

HOME HAPPENINGS

—Are you in favor of Eastern standard time? If not, why?

—L. L. Fullwiler's brick residence on East Main street is being painted.

—Roy Delfs has purchased the Sutton property on High street adjoining his home.

—Might as well get into the band wagon and go along with the Eastern time crowd.

—A stated communication of Argus Masonic lodge will be held this (Friday) evening.

—Vernon, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Scott, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

—Roy Dickson is having his Court street residence painted, greatly improving its appearance.

—The official board of the Methodist church will meet Friday evening at the home of Philo Beardsley.

—Sunday was a delightful day and hundreds of automobile parties were out enjoying the beauty of country drives.

—Grove Foshnacht and J. C. Starr are each training promising young race horses. They are being tracked at the fair grounds.

—George Hull purchased property on the Salem road of John Delfs and last week he and his wife moved here from Berlin township.

—Sure, Mike, all nature smiles. With a week of warm weather, then a soaking rain followed by sunshine, how could it be otherwise.

—J. R. Taber, formerly of Canfield, purchased property in West Summit street in Alliance and he and his family took possession of same on Thursday.

—D. L. Manchester last Saturday purchased J. R. Taber's fine home on High street and will take possession the first of next month. Consideration, $3700.

—Beginning next Sunday and continuing through the summer, Sunday morning services at the Presbyterian church will begin at 10 o'clock, and Sunday school at 9 o'clock, Central standard time.

—Canfield will send quite a delegation to the annual county field meet at Southern park, south of Boardman, today. The Normal lads have been training for several of the events and they are expected to give good account of themselves.

—Rev. Traverce Harrison of Lisbon, who conducted a successful series of evangelistic meetings in the Canfield Christian church, is in charge of meetings in Salem. Great crowds are turning out to hear him and many of his listeners have confessed their faith in Christ.

—A meeting of the board of village cemetery trustees was held Tuesday night for reorganization. C. N. Soudedecker, clerk, and C. C. Fowler, managing trustee and treasurer. A number of improvements at the cemetery were arranged for.

—A meeting of the board of county fair managers was held here last Saturday when a number of improvements were decided upon and plans made for the annual fair next September. Sixty-four feet will be added to the west end of the grand stand and new stock barns will be erected. The race track will be put in the best possible condition.

—F. A. Morris, the druggist, has purchased the brick block on Broad street, for many years the home of Lynn's drug store, now occupied by F. E. Wetmore's shoe store. As the building is under lease for about two years Mr. Morris will not be able to move his drug store until the lease expires. He is planning to make many improvements on the structure.

—The Altimo Gas Co. has moved its drilling rig to E. P. Tanner's farm on the Salem road and will test same for oil and gas. Many years ago, when drilling was done by hand, a hole was put down for coal within a few rods of where the Altimo Co. will drill. Coal was found but the test was too thin to justify developing. There is no doubt that gas will be found under the farm.

—Last Sunday in college chapel Miss Sackett of Cleveland organized the Canfield W. C. T. U. when the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. I. N. Burger, vice president, Miss Edna Jones; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. P. Kaiser; treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Hill. The first meeting will be held Friday evening, May 8, at the home of Mrs. I. N. Burger. It is hoped that every member will be present.

—At the meeting of Council Monday night ordinances providing for the annual budget and the adoption of Eastern standard time were passed. They will be found elsewhere in today's Dispatch. The pay ordinance was passed under consideration and it is likely places needing attention will be looked after within a week or two. Some of the concrete sidewalks have dangerous places in them and the committee in charge was instructed to have repairs made at once.

—The trustees of Canfield township met in town hall Tuesday night and fixed the tax budget for the ensuing year. Orders were issued to begin working the roads at once with King drags. The trustees plan to begin advertising shortly for bids to construct the macadam road to be built south to the township line so that the contract can be let as soon as possible after the $4,250 worth of bonds now being advertised are sold and paid for. This will expedite construction, as it has been decided the road must be completed before cold weather sets in.

—M. B. Chidester, who resides northwest of the village, has one of the largest flocks of pure-bred white Leghorn chickens in the county. Every week more than one hundred dozen eggs are gathered. He also has more than 450 white Leghorn chicks about three weeks old that are a delight to see. They roam at will during the day over a large field through which flows a stream and the little fellows jump in and swim like ducks. Mr. Chidester now has four incubators in action and in the course of two weeks expects to have five or six hundred more chicks.

—Next Sunday is Mother's Day and it will be observed in local churches.

—The interior of the postoffice has been painted and the walls will be papered.

—Drillers are at work on the Ryan farm on the Canfield-Boardman road, in Boardman township, hoping to strike oil or gas.

—Complain comes from different parts of town that boys have been stealing flowers from lawns of citizens. Two or three of the offenders are known and they may be prosecuted.

—The first annual convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Mahoning Presbytery will be held in Niles May 13 and 14, and it is desired that every member who possibly can attend the convention.

AUTOMOBILE STRUCK BY RESULTING IN HIS DEATH

Died in Front of Big Machine While Following Companions and Sustained Fatal Injuries.

Grant Campbell, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Campbell of Tarentum, Pa., was struck by an automobile driven by Russell Calvin about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening and injured so that death resulted at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. The accident occurred where Hillman street crosses the Fosterville-Kyles Corners road. Mr. Calvin, who operates a passenger automobile between Canfield and Youngstown, was leaving the city, running not more than 12 miles an hour as a farm wagon, buggy and two cows were approaching from the west. Mr. Calvin was constantly blowing his horn and ran the car well on to the side of the road to give room for the others to pass. Just as the vehicles were passing two little girls emerged from behind them and dashed across the road, the automobile missing them only by inches. Little Grant Campbell, who was behind them, started to follow, hesitated, then moved forward and was struck by the machine which Mr. Calvin stopped within its length. The little fellow was picked up by Charles Franklin of Youngstown, a passenger in the auto, and carried into the nearby home of J. E. Shroy, grandfather of the boy. A physician who came quickly found that the child's right arm was broken in two places and that he was injured about the neck and possibly internally. He was taken to the City hospital for a more thorough examination and it was discovered that his windpipe had been broken. Everything possible was done for the boy but death resulted as above stated. The accident was witnessed by the child's mother, who was standing on the porch of her parents' home, where she was visiting, and she held Mr. Calvin blameless for the accident. Other passengers in the automobile besides Mr. Franklin were Mr. and Mrs. Ford McGinnis, Mrs. Pearl McWilliams and Miss Marion Fowler of Canfield, and Rev. Mr. Vanvores, who was coming to Canfield to deliver an address in the Christian church, and all agree, with others who witnessed the accident, that Mr. Calvin was not to blame for it. The young man feels very badly over the unfortunate occurrence deeply regretting it. The remains of little Grant will be taken to Vandergrift, Pa., for burial.
